Aging Well Starts with Connections!

At Senior Connections, we're committed to supporting older adults and their caregivers by providing programs designed to enhance and improve the quality of their life.

JUNE 2026 | ISSUE 06

From the Director

A simple step you can take to prevent financial fraud and exploitation is the Pause Before Paying. Scammers rely on urgency and fear to try to convince people to act quickly. It may be a phone call claiming to be from Medicare, a text about the tollway, or someone requesting money to help a loved one that is in trouble. All these scams create panic so that there isn't time to think.

One of the best ways older adults and caregivers can help prevent costly mistakes caused by this type of fraud is to create one simple habit: pause before paying. Take some time to stop, make sure you verify the information. Senior Connections can help you sort through any questions related to Medicare. The Illinois Tollway has information about text message phishing scam claims on their website and where to report it. Call your loved one or a relative back at the number that you have for them if someone is requesting financial assistance.

Scammers may ask you for payment in the form of gift card, wire transfer, cryptocurrency, or prepaid cards. Common things scammers will say to get you to act quickly: "Act immediately," "Your account will be closed." "A family member is in trouble." "Do not tell anyone." "Payment must be made today."

The Family Violence Coordinating Council is presenting a free community event, "Financial Exploitation in Our Community," on June 3, 2026, from 8 a.m. to noon at Senior Connections, 2141 Henry Luckow Lane, Belvidere. Experts will provide information and tips to help you and those you care about avoid these and other scams, helping prevent financial loss and protect your personal information. A light breakfast and snacks will be provided. For information about the event contact Alysia Maggio at amaggio@17thcircuit.illinoiscourts.gov.

Senior Connections staff are available at (815) 544-9893 to help you talk through your concerns about potential scams, giving you the chance to slow down and take time to think. Taking a pause can make all the difference.

Movie: Father of the Bride

FRIDAY, JUNE 19TH AT 1:00 PM

"I would like to say a few words about weddings," a weary man says from the middle of a muddle of rice and scattered bottles. What follows is a warm, witty look at what it means to be Father of the Bride. Spencer Tracy is the father and Elizabeth Taylor the bride in this lively Vincente Minnelli-directed classic. Taylor is glowingly showcased - and reflected in three mirrors when first seen in a wedding gown. Tracy's performance captures every loving father's exasperations and joys as the day approaches. It also captured the fourth of his nine Best Actor Academy Award* nominations. The film also earned nominations for Best Picture and Screenplay. Here comes the bride, there goes dad's wallet - and everyone's heart. What sparkling fun!
